ST. YVES WINS 20-MILE RACE ON THE COAST

SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—Henry St. Yves, the Little French warrior, settled home as an winner at Spokane over John Mars, an Canadian, and the rest of the field. The race was run in the rain, and the fully 500 yards, more than a lap and a half, in the lead at the finish. His time for the twenty-mile course, six laps to the mile, was 17 minutes and 30 seconds, only two minutes slower than the race at Portland, where he won the same distance. The race was run under the most disagreeable conditions, and the horses, in a fine dirt falling steadily throughout, carried occasionally by a gust of wind, were very much out of their stride. The weather was miserably cold, and the spectators, who were few, were suffering. The weather, could not warm even by kicking the horses, and the officials, who were

ATLANTA, Nov. 8.—“Be thankful to God for all blessings, for afflictions, for poverty, for trials and tribulations, as well for prosperity and good health, and to raise our voices and repeat with the angels in heaven, ‘Benediction and honor be given to God forever and forever.’” said Cardinal Gibbons today.

From the pulpit of the Cathedral the cardinal always preaches on the first Sunday of each month at the high mass, and preached his annual Thanksgiving sermon.

There is no sin more odious or hateful God,” declared the cardinal, “than that of ingratitude. God cried out against the ingratitude of the Israelites, and today crying out against the ingrateful man.

“The ox submits to his master and ass to his rider, but the slave who is a man, who are servants of the Great Master, will not allow the yoke of Christianity to be put upon him.”

Day of Blessings.

The observance of Thanksgiving Day is a time-honored and laudable custom. Because of it being a day of public worship in this country, it is a day when the people of our country are reminded of the countless blessings upon us. Every rural farmer we have is a blessing from God, and it is incumbent upon you, brethren, to render thanks to the Almighty for whatever is done for you.

We should be thankful for our existence. Life is a merited blessing conferred upon us. We should be thankful for that life God has bestowed upon us, but also for the preservation of that life.

Some, they say, have little to be thankful for; they declare their health is bad, they are in straitened circumstances, while others are in the enjoyment of the abundance of good things and occupy exalted positions. But, my brethren, you should be thankful for God, and only for prosperity and adversity, and for all that God sends for adversity and prosperity.

"Be Thankful for Everything."

This may seem incongruous and paradoxical, but it is true. And when the day judgment comes you will thank God a thousand times more for the adversity, sorrow and trials of life than the tranquil favors.

When the day of Thanksgiving comes a month, and even every day, be thankful to God for what you are and for your existence; poor forth thanks to Almighty God.

All our prayers and good works should be done with a prayer of thanksgiving. A prayer of thanksgiving is the most
